5. Instructions and Dealing Practice

- 5.1 The Broker is authorised to act upon any Instructions to purchase and/or sell Securities for and on behalf of the Client and otherwise deal with Securities, receivables or monies held in or for the Account subject to the Client Money Rules and the Client Securities Rules. Notwithstanding anything in these Terms of Business implying the contrary, the Broker shall be entitled, in its absolute discretion, to refuse to carry out any Instructions and shall not be obliged to give any reasons for any such refusal.
- 5.2 Any Instructions given shall be a full, sufficient and immediate authority for the Broker. The Broker may in its absolute discretion rely upon and act in accordance with any Instructions, notices or other communications which may be given or made or purported to be given, which it has cause to believe to have emanated from the Client or an Authorised Person. The Broker shall not be under any duty to verify the identity or authority of the persons giving or making or purporting to give or make the Instructions, notices or communications. The Broker shall be entitled to treat such Instructions, notices or communications as fully authorised by and binding upon the Client and the Broker may act on or take such steps in connection with or in reliance upon such Instructions, notices or communications as the Broker may in good faith consider appropriate regardless of the nature of the transaction or the value, type and quantity of Securities involved and notwithstanding any error or misunderstanding or lack of clarity whether apparent or actual in the terms of such Instructions, notices or communications.
- 5.3 The Client confirms and agrees that, for mutual protection of the Broker and the Client, the Broker may electronically monitor or tape record all conversations with the Client and/or any Authorised Person whether conducted on the telephone or through any other media and save in the case of manifest error, the Client will accept the contents of any such electronic record or tape recording as final and conclusive evidence of the Instructions of the conversation concerned and its content.
- 5.4 Unless otherwise disclosed to the Client in writing, the Broker will act as a broker and not as a principal in relation to any transaction undertaken by the Broker pursuant to these Terms of Business. Unless otherwise proved beyond all reasonable doubt to the contrary, the Client acknowledges and agrees that any dealing in or with Securities effected by the Broker pursuant to the Instructions of the Client or any Authorised Person shall not have resulted from the selection or advice in the selection of such Securities by the Broker.

- 5.5 The Client acknowledges that by reason of physical restraints on Exchanges and rapid changes in the prices of Securities that frequently take place, there may on occasions be a delay in dealing and that the Broker may not be able to trade in Securities at the prices quoted therefor at any specific time or at "best" or at "market" value. The Client further acknowledges that the Broker shall not be liable for any loss arising by reason of its failing, or being unable to comply with any terms of any order of the Client or any Authorised Person on behalf of the Client. Where the Broker is unable to perform any order in full, unless otherwise specifically instructed on the particular occasion concerned, the Broker is entitled to effect partial performance of such order without prior reference to or confirmation from the Client.
- 5.6 If the Broker shall have effected a purchase of any Securities on behalf of the Client which transaction is recorded in accordance with the rules and regulations of an Exchange and accordingly recognised by such Exchange and the selling broker (other than the Broker) from whom such Securities were purchased, fails to deliver on the due date in accordance with the rules and regulations of the Exchange, the Broker shall be responsible for any difference in price and all incidental expenses incurred by the Broker in obtaining such Securities in the open market provided that where a purchase or sale of Securities has been concluded between the Client and the seller or the selling broker (other than the Broker) and the Broker is instructed to record such transaction in accordance with the rules and regulations of the Exchange as aforesaid, the Broker shall have no responsibility whatsoever in or for the failure of the seller or the selling broker as aforesaid whether in respect of the difference in price, incidental expenses or otherwise.
- 5.7 Unless the Client gives specific instructions to the Broker to the contrary, the Client acknowledges that all orders or requests are good for the day only and that they will lapse at the end of the official trading day of the Exchange in respect of which they are given.
- 5.8 If the Client requests the Broker and/or any Broker's nominee to apply for Securities in a new issue of Securities for listing on the Stock Exchange (or where applicable, a rights issue or placement), the Client:
- (a) authorises the Broker and/or any Broker's nominee to make such application on behalf of the Client;
 - (b) warrants and undertakes that the application for Securities made by the Broker and/or any Broker's nominee on the Client's behalf shall be the only application made for the benefit of the Client or any person for whose benefit the Client has requested the application to be made;
 - (c) warrants that the Client will comply with the terms of the issue and in particular that, unless permitted by the terms of the issue, no other application shall be made by the Client itself or for the benefit of the Client by any other person;
 - (d) authorises the Broker and/or any Broker's nominee to represent and warrant to the companies to whom applications are made for the issuing of Securities on the application form that no other application shall be made or shall be intended to be made by the Client itself or for the benefit of the Client by the Broker or any Broker's nominee or by any other person;
 - (e) authorises the Broker and/or any Broker's nominee to disclose that the application made by the Broker and/or any Broker's nominee on the Client's behalf shall be the only application made or intended to be made for the benefit of the Client or any person for whose benefit the Client has requested the application to be made;
 - (f) acknowledges that the authorisations, warranties, undertakings and disclosures referred to above will be relied upon by the Broker and/or any Broker's nominee in making the application and by the issuers of the Securities in deciding whether or not to allot Securities to the Broker and/or any Broker's nominee on behalf of the Client;
 - (g) acknowledges that an application for Securities made by an unlisted company which does not carry on any business other than dealing in Securities and in respect of which the Client exercises statutory control shall be deemed to be an application made for the benefit of the Client;
 - (h) indemnifies the Broker and any Broker's nominee and their directors, employees and agents in full against any and all losses, damages, claims, liabilities, costs or expenses arising out of or in connection with any breach of this clause 5.8; and
 - (i) waives all and any claims it may have against the Broker and any Broker's nominee and their directors, employees and agents should any Securities in the new issue not be issued to the Client unless such non-issue is due to the personal and wilful default of the Broker, done with intention to cause the loss actually suffered by the Client, save that where the Client is also a broker, the warranties and undertaking in sub-clauses (b) and (c) above are given on a best knowledge, information and belief basis after proper full enquiry by such Client.

- 5.9 Notwithstanding any other term of these Terms of Business, once the Broker has executed a transaction, whether of purchase and/or sale, on the Client's behalf or account, the Client will by the due settlement date make payment to the Broker against delivery of or credit to the Client for purchased Securities, or make good delivery of sold Securities against payment as the case may be. Should the Client fail to make such payment or make good delivery of sold Securities by the due settlement date then without prejudice to any other rights of the Broker howsoever arising, the Broker is irrevocably authorised to transfer or sell any Securities held by any Broker's Group Company for the Client towards satisfaction of the Client's obligations (on any purchase transaction) and to borrow and/or otherwise acquire Securities as are necessary towards satisfaction of the Client's obligation (on any sale transaction), the Client being liable to pay to the Broker:
- (a) all costs and expenses (on an indemnity basis) arising out of or connected with the Client's failure to make due payment and/or delivery of Securities; and
 - (b) interest on the total amount due under clause 5.9 (a) above at the interest rate specified in clause 7.4.
- 5.10 The Client warrants and undertakes that it will give notice in writing (including facsimile and/or email) to the Broker prior to giving instructions on a sale when such a sale order covers Securities which the Client does not itself already own (i.e. a sale generally referred to as a short sale) and whether or not such notice is given, further authorises the Broker to purchase and/or obtain at any time such Securities to cover the sale on the Client's behalf (and at the Client's expense) if the Broker in its absolute discretion decides to do so. The Client also warrants that it has made arrangements to borrow securities for settlement on or before contractual settlement date, and honestly believes that, at the time of transaction, it will be able to deliver the securities to the Broker on or before the contractual settlement date. The Client further acknowledges and agrees that only designated Securities can be sold short and further agrees to indemnify the Broker against any loss, damages or claim that may arise as a result of such short selling.
- 5.11 Without prejudice to clause 5.10 above, in respect of each short selling order to be transacted at or through the Stock Exchange upon Client's instruction, the Client hereby confirms that it understands and agrees to comply with the relevant provision of section 170 and 171 of the Securities and Futures Ordinance and its related subsidiary legislation and agree to ensure compliance by the Client and any other relevant persons.
- 5.12 If the Client exceeds the trading limit as may be determined from time to time by the Broker, then if that overtrading is noted before the execution of any order, then the Broker may, without giving notice to the Client and without being liable therefor, decline to execute the order concerned.
- 5.13 If the Client or an Authorised Person is acting on behalf of any one else other than the Client when giving Instructions to the Broker, the Broker will and is entitled to treat the Client alone as its client for all purposes and the Client will be liable accordingly. This applies even if the Client or Authorised Person has informed any of the Broker's staff or agents that it is acting on behalf of another.
- 5.14 The Client acknowledges that all transactions for the Account may be effected by the Broker directly on any Exchanges where the Broker is authorized to deal in Securities, or, at its option, on any Exchanges indirectly through any other broker which the Broker may, at its discretion, decide to appoint.
- 5.15 Subject to applicable laws and regulations and market requirements, the Broker may in its absolute discretion determine the priority in the execution of its clients' orders, having due regard to the sequence in which such orders were received, and the Client shall not have any claim of priority to another client in relation to the execution of any order received by the Broker.
- 6. Commissions and Expenses
- 6.1 The Client shall on demand pay the Broker commission on purchase, sales and other transactions for the Account at such rates as the Broker may from time to time have notified the Client or as otherwise prescribed by the Broker as being the rates applicable to the Account. The Broker shall be entitled to debit the Account with all commission payable pursuant to this clause together with all stamp duties, charges, transfer fees, registration fees, interest, levies and other expenses in respect of or connection with the Account or any Securities, receivables or monies held in or for the Account or any transaction in respect of such Securities, receivables and monies. The Client shall forthwith (without the need for a demand) reimburse the Broker for all fees and expenses of any agents and nominees engaged by the Broker and any other expenses incurred by the Broker or such agents or nominees in connection with transactions conducted on behalf of and services rendered to the Client pursuant to these Terms of Business.
- 6.2 The Broker reserves the right to charge the Client a periodic account maintenance fee or such other charges as determined by the Broker if the average daily credit balance of the Account shall in any time period from time to time specified by the Broker falls below an amount as the Broker from time to time determines or the Account shall remain dormant for such period of time as the Broker shall determine from time to time. The Broker shall be entitled to debit the account maintenance fees or other charges payable by the Client to any account of the Client with the Broker or any other Broker's Group Company at any time. Without prejudice to any other right of the Broker, if the Client has insufficient funds in the Account to cover fees and charges payable by the Client, the Broker shall be entitled to terminate or suspend the Account or the whole or part of the services provided by the Broker without prior notice to the Client.

- 6.3 The Client acknowledges and agrees that the Broker shall, at its absolute discretion, be entitled to solicit, accept and retain any benefit in connection with any transaction effected with any person for the Client pursuant to the terms and subject to the condition of these Terms of Business, including any commissions, rebates or similar payments received in connection therewith, and rebates from standard commissions charged by brokers or other agents to their clients. The Broker shall also, at its absolute discretion, be entitled to offer any benefit in connection with any transaction effected with any person for the Client pursuant to the terms and subject to the conditions of these Terms of Business, including any benefit relating to the commission or similar payments in connection therewith.

7. Monies in the Account

- 7.1 The Client shall provide the Broker with cleared funds or arrange for the Broker to be put in cleared funds in good time to enable it to discharge any liability incurred or to be incurred in connection with transactions conducted on behalf of the Client and shall on demand (even before the settlement date) reimburse the Broker for all costs and expenses incurred (or to be incurred) by or in connection therewith and settle any debit balance on the Account.

- 7.2 The Client acknowledges that the Broker shall be entitled to deposit the monies held or received by the Broker from or on behalf of the Client into one or more segregated accounts in Hong Kong each of which shall be designated as a trust account or client account and shall be established and maintained with an authorised financial institute or any other person approved by the SFC for the purposes of section 4 of the Client Money Rules.

- 7.3 The Client agrees that the Broker and any Broker's Group Company shall be entitled to apply the monies held or received by the Broker in one or more segregated accounts on behalf of the Client to:-

- (a) meet the Client's obligations to meet settlement and/or margin requirements in respect of dealing in Securities carried out by the Broker on behalf of the Client;
- (b) pay any sum that the Client owes to the Broker in respect of dealing in Securities by the Broker on behalf of the Client; or
- (c) pay any sum that the Client owes to the Broker's Group Company in respect of the receipt or holding of monies for or on behalf of the Client by the Broker's Group Company.

- 7.4 The Client undertakes to pay interest to the Broker in respect of any debit balance on the Account or any amount otherwise owing to the Broker at any time at such rate as may be notified from time to time to the Client or failing any such notification, at a rate per annum equivalent to 6.5% above the higher from time to time of either:

- (a) the Broker's cost of funds (as determined and certified by the Broker); or
- (b) the Hong Kong dollar prime rate as quoted by the Hongkong & Shanghai Banking Corporation Limited or such other bank in Hong Kong as the Broker may select.

Interest under this clause shall accrue on a day-to-day basis and shall be charged to and paid by the Client on the last day of each calendar month or upon any demand for such interest being made by the Broker.

- 7.5 If any money is to be credited directly to a bank account of the Broker instead of by cheque or cashier's order in favour of the Broker, then the risk of that money being miscredited and/or misappropriated is borne by the Client solely. Further the Client must in any event:

- (a) quote the relevant Account number with the Broker on the pay in slip or transfer instruction;
- (b) provide the Broker with a copy of the pay in slip and written instructions as to the use of the money so paid in on the same day as the payment is made; and
- (c) give such further notice(s) in writing to the Broker in such form as may be required from time to time by the Broker and the Client's failure to do so will mean that if such failure causes a delay in the funds being credited to the Account and a debit balance on the Account results, then clause 7.4 will apply (and the Client will pay interest accordingly) until the funds are actually credited to the Account, notwithstanding that the Broker actually has the money in its bank account.

8. Foreign Currency Transactions

The Account shall be maintained in dollars. If the Broker is instructed (or if the circumstances require) to effect any sale or purchase of Securities on an Exchange in a currency other than dollars, any profit or loss arising as a result of a fluctuation in the exchange rate between such currency and dollars will be entirely for the account of the Client. The Broker may convert funds in the Account or any other account held in the name of the Client into dollars at such rate of exchange as the Broker shall in its sole discretion determine (in the absence of manifest error) as being a fair rate applicable on the conversion date. The Broker may further charge the Client a conversion charge of no more than 1% of the amount converted.

9. Securities in the Account

9.1 The Broker shall be authorised and entitled to:-

- (a) deposit the Client's Securities in safe custody in a segregated account which is designated as a trust account or client account and established and maintained in Hong Kong by the Broker or its associated entities for the purpose of holding Client securities with an authorised financial institution, an approved custodian, or another intermediary licensed for dealing in securities; or
- (b) register the Client's Securities in the name of the Client or an associated entity of the Broker.

9.2 Unless provided under these Terms of Business or otherwise agreed by the Client and the Broker, the Broker shall not deposit, transfer, lend, pledge, re-pledge or otherwise deal with any of the Client's Securities or securities collaterals without the oral or written direction or standing authority from the Client.

9.3 Subject to the Securities and Futures Ordinance and relevant rules made thereunder, the Client authorises the Broker to dispose or initiate a disposal by the Broker's associated entities any of the Client's Securities or securities collateral in settlement of any liability owed by or on behalf of the Client whether to the Broker, whether to the Broker's associated entities or a third person and the Client agrees that the Broker shall have the absolute discretion to determine which of the Client's Securities or securities collateral are to be disposed of.

9.4 The Client represents and warrants to the Broker that it has good unencumbered title to all Securities which the Client instructs the Broker to sell (save for any encumbrance created over such Securities in favour of the Broker or any Broker's Group Company) and undertakes to deliver scrip for such Securities no later than noon on the settlement date, failing which the Broker may purchase and/or otherwise obtain such Securities at the Client's expense so that the Broker can comply with the relevant rules of the Exchange applicable thereto.

9.5 Any obligations of the Broker to deliver, to hold in safe custody or otherwise to register in the name of the Client, Securities purchased or acquired by it on behalf of the Client shall be satisfied by the delivery, the holding, or registration in the name of the Client or its nominee Securities being identical with such Securities in terms of number, class, denomination, nominal amount and rights attached thereto (subject always to any capital reorganisation which may have occurred in the meantime) and the Client specifically authorises the Broker to part with the possession of or otherwise deal with any such Securities purchased or acquired by it on behalf of the Client in such manner as it in its absolute discretion shall determine provided that it is able to comply with such foregoing obligations and procures that amounts equal to any amounts payable in respect of such Securities (by way of dividend or otherwise) are credited to the Client and the Client obtains the benefit of entitlements which are identical with any entitlements arising in relation to such Securities.

9.6 Where any Securities are held in accordance with clause 9.1, the Broker has absolute discretion, subject to applicable laws and regulations, to decide whether or not to attend any meeting or exercise any voting rights or other rights. The Broker has no duty to act on or inform the Client to act on any rights with regard to the Securities. The Broker shall not be responsible to inform the Client or to send to the Client such notices, communications, proxies and other documents received by the Broker with regard to the Securities or their related rights (including but not limited to placement). The Broker has the right to charge the Client a service fee in relation to the taking of any action pursuant to the Client's Instruction.

10. Withdrawal from the Account

Subject to the prior discharge in full of all sums or liabilities actual or contingent owed by the Client or any Client Group Company to the Broker or to any other Broker's Group Company, the Broker shall as soon as reasonably practicable after having been required to do so in writing by the Client or any Authorised Person on behalf of the Client:-

- (a) procure the registration of any Securities from time to time forming part of the Account in the name of the Client or its nominee or deliver the documents representing such Securities to the Client or its nominee whereupon such Securities shall cease to form part of the Account; and
- (b) transfer any sum standing to the credit of the Account to the Client in accordance with clause 4.

11. Additions to and Interest on the Account

- 11.1 The Client may at any time transfer or procure the transfer of additional monies to be credited to the Account and the Broker shall procure that any such monies are so credited to the Account without undue delay following receipt of such monies, save and except permitted under the Client Money Rules.
- 11.2 All dividends or other distributions in respect of Securities held for the Client as are received by the Broker shall be credited to the Client as per clause 4 of these terms and conditions.
- 11.3 After any of the Client's money has been paid into a segregated account pursuant to Rules 4(1) of the Client Money Rules, the Client authorises and directs the Broker (if the Broker deems it advisable) to transfer any such money and place it on deposit elsewhere (separately or together with the money of other parties) PROVIDED ALWAYS that such money is deposited with a bank (as that term is defined in the Banking Ordinance (Chapter 155 of the Laws of Hong Kong)). If the Broker does so and the Account (being maintained in dollars) remains in credit for a period of time above a minimum level (such period and minimum level to be determined by the Broker in its sole discretion from time to time), the Broker will on the last day of each calendar month credit the Account with interest. Such interest shall be calculated at such rate at the lower of either (a) the actual amount of interest accrued on the relevant part of the Client's money or (b) the amount of interest determined by the Broker in line with the standard savings rate available at the authorised financial institution concerned for the relevant part of the Client's money. The Broker is entitled to keep any balance of interest accrued for itself, without having to notify the Client of, or account to the Client for that balance.

12. Information and Confidentiality

- 12.1 The Broker shall within the period from time to time specified under the Securities and Futures Ordinance or the Rules of the Stock Exchange send to the Client (or otherwise if the Client so directs and the Broker agrees) copies of any contract notes, confirmations or statements relating to any transactions in Securities effected by the Broker on behalf of the Client and send a monthly statement which summarises entries in the Account including where relevant collection of dividends and payment of interest. The Client undertakes to inform a responsible officer of the Broker immediately in writing if the Client does not receive a contract note, confirmation or statement within such specified period.
- 12.2 The Broker shall make available such information relating to the Account as the Client may from time to time reasonably require.
- 12.3 Confirmations in writing of the execution of the Client's orders, contract notes and statements of the Account shall, in the absence of manifest error, be conclusive of the matters stated therein (including any and all receipts and/or payments of money) and shall be deemed to have been accepted by the Client if not objected to in writing by the Client within two weeks after despatch thereof to the Client under clause 12.1.
- 12.4 The Broker may, if so requested by any Exchange, regulatory authority or government body provide to such Exchange, authority or body details of the Account in order to assist them in any investigation or enquiry being undertaken by them.
- 12.5 The Client authorises any Broker's Group Company to conduct credit enquiries from time to time for the purpose of ascertaining the financial situation and/or investment objectives of the Client.
- 12.6 The Broker and any Broker's Group Company may (whether during the continuance or after the termination of these Terms of Business and with or without notice to the Client), disclose to any other Broker's Group Company (and any actual or potential assignee or transferee of these Term of Business or any person who may otherwise enter into contractual relations with the Broker in relation to these Terms of Business or the Account), any information relating to the Client and/or these Terms of Business and/or the Account as the Broker shall in its discretion consider appropriate.
- 12.7 The Broker will comply with the provisions of the Personal Data (Privacy) Ordinance (Chapter 486 of the Laws of Hong Kong) so that for example the Client, if a natural person, shall upon giving reasonable notice to the Broker and upon payment of any prescribed fee, be entitled to see the Broker's data on the Client and to have any inaccuracy corrected.

13. Conflict of Interest

- 13.1 Nothing contained in these Terms of Business shall be deemed to prohibit or inhibit the Broker from, and the Client consents to the Broker, acting in any capacity for any other person, purchasing for the Account Securities held by it for its own account or held by any other of its clients or purchasing for its own account or for the account of any other of its clients Securities forming part of the Account (provided that in any case the terms of the purchases are not less favourable to the Client than they would have been had the transaction been entered into with a party other than the Broker or one of its clients). The Client shall not make any claims against the Broker or any Broker's Group Company in relation to any such transactions including without limitation any claims to the effect that the Broker should account to the Client for any commission, profits or any other benefits whatsoever earned by the Broker in relation to any such transactions.
